

SEOUL PEACE EDUCATION CENTER

ACTIVITIES REPORT

1. The 6th Religious Youth Peace School

With the theme of 'Peace and Religious Youth Leaders,' ACRP Seoul Peace Education Center provided 35 religious youth leaders Peace School during the sessions and a Peace Pilgrimage at the end of the course.

- Peace School

Date: May 18th – June 15th, 2018. On every Friday in 5 weeks (5 lectures in 5 weeks)

Place: NCKK BLDG, TOZ Center

Participants: 35 students. 5 recommended students from each 7 Religious groups as well as public.

- Peace Pilgrimage

Date: July 1st – 5th, 2018

Place: Vladivostok, Ussuriysk, Russia

Participants: 6th Peace School students who successfully completed 5 weeks program. Total of 35 person including Program Officers

- Results

- Strengthening interfaith between youth leaders from 7 different religions in Korea
- Educating modern history of Northern East Asia and contributing to build right value on war and peace

2. 2018 Religions for Peace Asia Interfaith Youth Peace Camp

As a resolution from the 2014 Youth Camp in August, ACRP Youth Camp has been held every year. In 2018, with cooperation of ACRP, APIYN, and RfP Myanmar, the camp could be harmoniously executed.

Date: December 17th – 21st, 2018

Place: Yangon, Myanmar

Theme: Taking Action on Climate Change through Interfaith Cooperation

Activities: Workshops, Visits to Religious Sites, Field Workshop (Buddhist Compound; Pann Pyo Lett)

Participants: Approximately 85 participants (National chapter youth delegates, APIYN, Participants & Volunteers from RfP Myanmar, SPEC, ACRP, RfP International)

▪ Results

- Identifying how the climate change affects the communities and what actions can be taken in order to mitigate these impacts
- Educating the participants the knowledge and skills in responding to the impacts of the climate change
- Empowering interfaith youth groups to develop campaigns, advocacies and collective actions in local level to help climate change problems through interfaith cooperation