

CHINA COMMITTEE ON RELIGIONS AND PEACE

2018 National Report

CCRP presents to the ACRP Executive Committee its National Chapter Report between January, 2018 and December, 2018.

Overview of all the activities carried out by your chapter between January, 2018 and December, 2018

In 2018, with the active participation of all members and support from different Chinese religious organs, CCRP has attended activities of ACRP and improved its own work, which further promoted unity and harmony among all Chinese religions and friendly exchanges between China religious circles and other religious communities of other Asian countries.

1. INVITING ACRP LEADERSHIP AND MEMBERS OF DEVELOPMENT AND Environment COMMITTEE TO VISIT CHINA

a) Date of Program:

Sep. 11th to 14th, 2018

b) Contents and context of the program:

Convening symposium on "Religions & Building Ecological Civilizations" in Beijing, and visiting project of water pollution control and prevention and holy place in Zhejiang province. Prof. Cahill, Madam Mastura, Dr. Sison, Mr. Nemoto, Dr. Sugino, Mr. Kamiya and representatives from RfP Japan, RfP Malaysia, RfP Philippine, and RfP Thailand attended this activity.

c) Targeted goal(s) of the program:

Introducing China's policies about environmental protection, studying climate challenges face by different countries and communities, and sharing helpful experiences to deal with climate changes.

d) Perceived significance and impact of the program:

CCRP, as Chair of Development and Environment Committee, has supported ACRP work and promoted exchanges among members of ACRP by this pragmatic activity, which enabled all participants to know experience, idea and achievement in protecting environment in different countries, and learn how to guide religious believers to join in environmental protection.

e) Articulated issues, problems and challenges of the program:

Financial cost.

f) Recommendations for future activities:

Some financial support from ACRP.

2. ATTENDING ACRP EC MEETING IN BENGALURU

a) Date of Program:

Apr.15th to 19th, 2018

b) Contents and context of the program:

ACRP 2018 EC Meeting

c) Targeted goal(s) of the program:

To discuss ACRP Constitution, proposal of 2020 Assembly, and future development of ACR

d) Perceived significance and impact of the program:

To study CCRP's work and share experience with other Chinese religious organs and enhance exchanges and innovate CCRP's work.

3. SEMINAR ON CCRP'S WORK

a) Date of Program:

Nov.7th to 11th, 2018

b) Contents and context of the program:

Study how to strengthen and improve CCRP its own work.

c) Targeted goal(s) of the program:

To better know each other among all members and further promote religious harmony and improve CCRP's work.

d) Perceived significance and impact of the program:

To study CCRP's work and share experience with other Chinese religious organs and enhance exchanges and innovate CCRP's work.

e) Articulated issues, problems and challenges of the program:

Women and youth members are not enough although CCRP has already establish women and youth working group.

f) Recommendations for future activities:

To conduct more activities about women and youth members.

4. ATTENDING IRCR INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

a) Date of Program:

Aug.26th to 29th, 2018

b) Contents and context of the program:

Seminar on challenges to build up peace community in Northeast Asia.

c) Targeted goal(s) of the program:

To study challenges to building peace community in Northeast Asia and share useful ideology and practices to promote peace in Northeast Asia.

d) Perceived significance and impact of the program:

To introduce the ideology about building a Community with a Shared Future for Humanity and facilitate exchanges between Chinese religious circles and religious communities in other Northeast Asia country.

5. ATTENDING INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR HOSTED BY ACRP BANGLADESH CHAPTER

a) Date of Program:

Nov.26th to 30th

b) Contents and context of the program:

International Seminar on World Peace through Interfaith and Intra-faith dialogue.

c) Targeted goal(s) of the program:

To explore how to promote social stability, resolve regional conflicts and handle common challenges through interfaith dialogue.

d) Perceived significance and impact of the program:

To strengthen friendly cooperation between CCRP and ACRP Bangladesh Chapter, sharing China religious ideas and practice to advocate peace, tolerance and cooperation, and call Asian religious communities to promote world peace by development, dialogue and cooperation.

6. ATTENDING ACRP YOUTH CAMP IN BURMA

a) Date of Program:

Dec.17th 21st, 2018

b) Contents and context of the program:

Organizing youth believers to study on dealing with influences brought by climate changes by strengthening interfaith cooperation.

c) Targeted goal(s) of the program:

To enable all participants to know better about challenges of climate changes and study how the youth leaders will do for environment protection.

d) Perceived significance and impact of the program:

To promote exchanges and cooperation between CCRP and ACRP SPEC, ACRP Burma Chapter, and exchanges between CCRP youth member and other young religious believers from other Asia organizations.

