Anually, 21 of September is celebrated by the nations of the world as the INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE. The theme for this year is "Shaping Peace Together"

What is that means for us, the Indonesian nation?

A nation born, grow, and develop from diversity, in diversity, together in diversity, for the unity of nation. Diversity in pluralism is the "heart" of Indonesian nation, which is not only give lifes but also make each other life through the ways of peace, humane, mutual respect, solidarity, and responsibility for the common life, including the nature and all of His creatures.

We, the young people of Indonesia spread all across Indonesia with different Religion and Faith backgrounds as well as other different Communities are optimist that we could shape the peace together in a dignified and peace ways.

In this occasion, we, Institute DIAN/Interfidei and Indonesia Interfaith Network (IIN- Jaringan Antar-Iman Indonesia (JAI)) would like to invite brothers and sisters, friends, ladies, gentlemen, wherever you are to join in our Youth Webinar Session I "The Long Way of Peace: Obviously Can! We Can!"

This activity will be held on Friday, September 25 2020 at 14:00-16:30 WIB. Host: Cornelius Selan. The opening: Prof. M. Machasin (Senior Professor of UIN Sunan Kalijaga, Chair of Board of Institute DIAN/Interfidei)
