

Connecting the Dots for Peacebuilding in ASEAN: AWPR and 'Aisyyiah

Arifah Rahmawati
9 March 2023

Outline Presentation

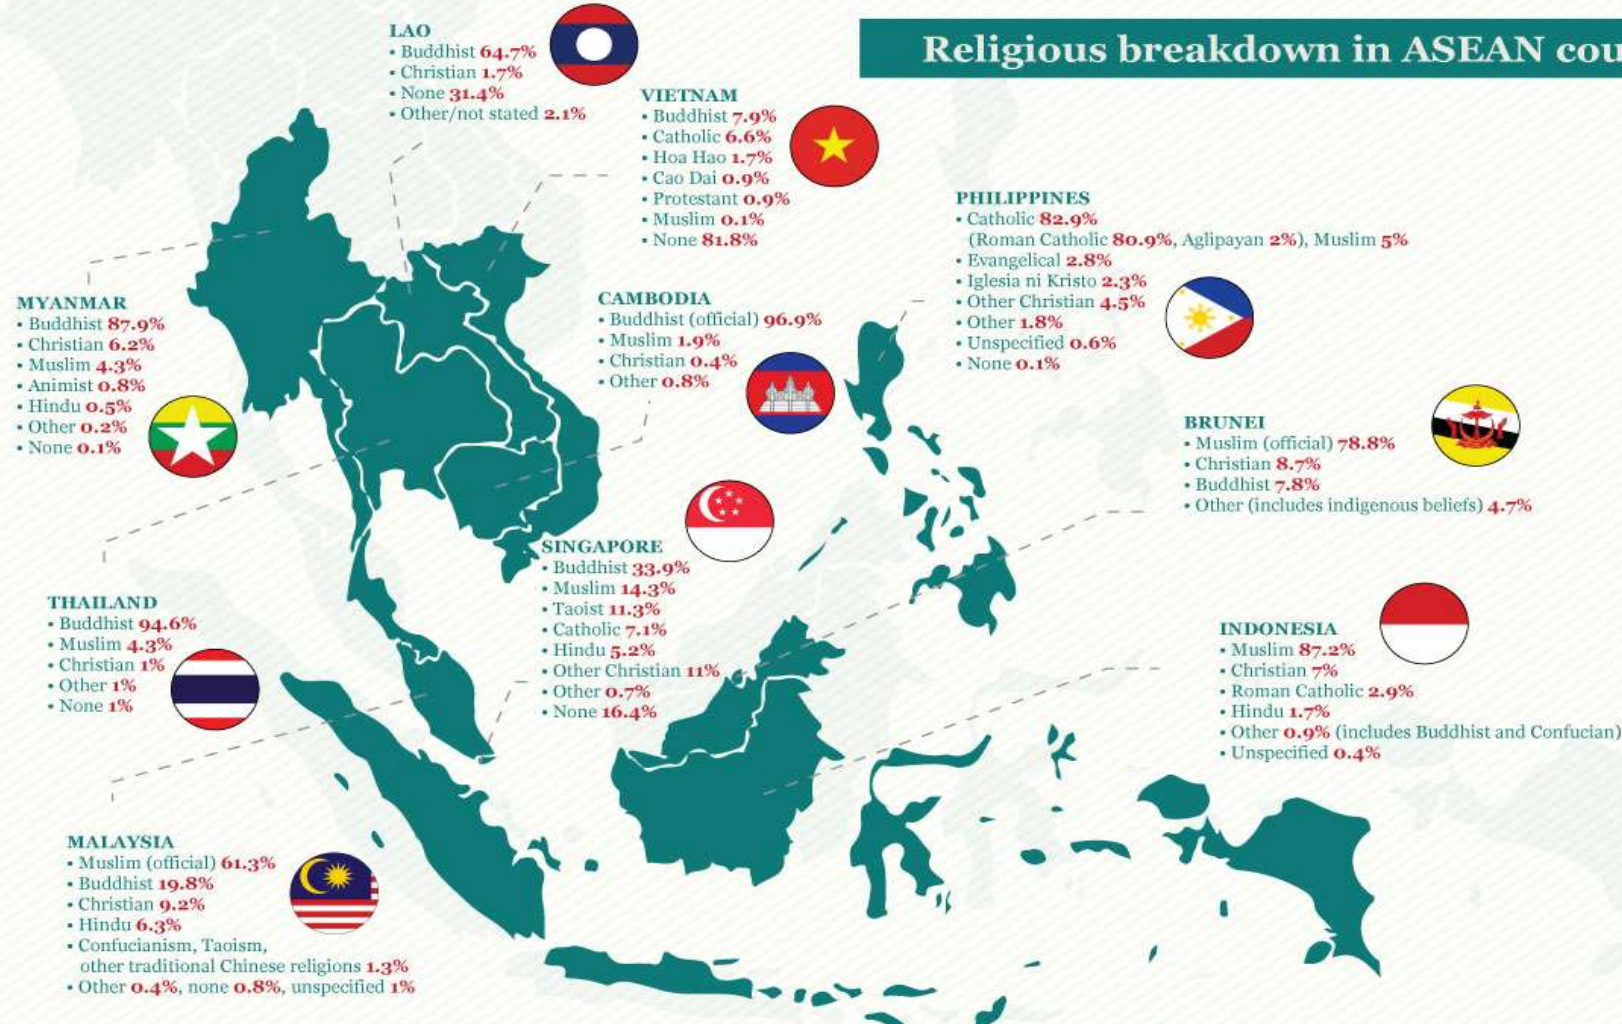

- Religion in ASEAN
- ASEAN Women for Peace Registry
- 'Aisyiyah – Islamic faith-based organization
- Conclusion

Peacebuilding

“A broad range of activities, including conflict prevention, management and transformation; and the longer-term rebuilding of civil society and democratic institutions such as human rights regimes, and ethical traditions conducive to peaceful relations”

Religion in ASEAN

Religious breakdown in ASEAN countries

Note:

Religion estimation is based on the 2014 national census, including an estimate for the non-enumerated population of Rakhine State, which is assumed to mainly affiliate with the Islamic faith.

ASEAN Women for Peace Registry - AWPR

- * Pool of women expert and network
- * Represent of all AMS
- * New part of peace infrastructure
- * An active registry

'AISYIYAH

- Islamic faith-based women organization
- Community preaching program
- Wisdom words, action and charity works
- Facilitating women to get income generation, health and education services; protection from SGBV.

Conclusion

- High expectation for both organization.
- AWPR have shown the commitment to addressing peace and security.
- 'Aisyiyah presents religious actor as effective facilitator of peacebuilding.
- Addressing peace-less-ness situation of women and community.