

RELIGIONS FOR PEACE PAKISTAN

PROGRESS REPORT 2025

Building Bridges, Fostering Resilience, and Championing Justice

Presented by:
Huma Ikramullah,
Associate Secretary General, Religions for Peace Asia and
Secretary General, Religions for Peace Pakistan

Report compiled by: Sadia Tariq,
Media and Youth Coordinator, RFP

Introduction

Religions for Peace Pakistan (RFP Pakistan) continued to champion interfaith harmony, climate justice, and social equity in 2025.

It served as a national and regional leader in advancing these causes. Through strategic partnerships, community-rooted initiatives, and robust advocacy, the organisation has made a meaningful impact across diverse communities in Pakistan and extended its influence beyond borders.

From high-level engagement with government and international institutions to deep grassroots efforts in conflict-prone and climate-vulnerable areas, RFP Pakistan has worked with integrity and compassion to create sustainable and inclusive change.

This report elaborates on the organisation's key achievements, recognitions, events, and collaborations throughout the year.

This report highlights key achievements, events, and recognitions from the past year.

Community Outreach and Humanitarian Projects

Clean and Accessible Drinking Water for All Religious Communities

• Initiatives:

To ensure equitable access to safe drinking water, RFP Pakistan initiated the installation of solar-powered water filtration plants and hand pumps in underserved areas, particularly those inhabited by religious minorities. These facilities now serve thousands of residents across rural Sindh, Balochistan, and South Punjab. Over 80 handpumps installed in collaboration.

• Interfaith Collaboration:

Local religious leaders, imams, pastors, pundits, and grant his were engaged in site selection and community sensitisation to promote ownership and sustainability.

• Impact:

Beyond addressing waterborne diseases and child malnutrition, this initiative also strengthened interfaith solidarity by demonstrating shared concern for human dignity and public health.

Solar-Powered Water Filtration Plant and 15 handpumps funded by RFP

Future Goals 2026

1. Expand the Women of Faith Network to all provinces, targeting 50% female representation in climate governance.
2. Scale up the Green Initiative to fund solar projects in rural worship spaces.

Conclusion

Religions for Peace Pakistan remains a beacon of hope in turbulent times. By merging spiritual wisdom with legal rigor and grassroots action, we are proving that unity in diversity is not just an ideal—it is a practice. As Seemi Ikramullah remarked at the Rotary Award ceremony, “When women lead, resilience follows.”

“There is no faith without service, no peace without justice.”
